SUNDAY CONCERTS FOR MARYVILLE

DIRECTOR KUTSCHINSKI ANNOUNCES PLANS TODAY

1ST A SACRED CONCERT

Second a Popular Concert and Third, Classical—First Probably January 7 at Empire Theatre

Maryville will have a series of indoor band concerts this winter. C. D. Kutschinski, director of the band, announced this morning that plans were under way to have indoor concerts as a continuation of the outdoor concerts this summer, which proved so popular.

It is the plan of Mr. Kutschinski to hold the concerts on Sunday afternoon and they will probably be held at the Empire Theatre. If possible, the first of these winter concerts will be held Sunday afternoon, January 7, or the following Sunday, January 14. The first of the series will be a sacred concert, consisting of church music and sacred pieces. The second will be a popular concert consisting of late numbers of popular song hits. The third number of the series will be a classical concert. The nature of the following concerts have not been decided upon as yet, but Director Kutschinski expects to have his plans completed soon.

These winter concerts should prove a popular feature with the music lovers of Maryville. High class entertainments will be given on Sunday afternoons and they should justify hearty support from the people of the town.

GEORGE ALEY, 91, OLDEST NODAWAY COUNTY HUNTER

Five Boys, 13, Were Youngest to Purchase Licenses to Hunt in Year 1922

George Aley of Burlington Junction was the oldest person to purchase a hunting license during the year 1922. He is 91 years old. In contrast there were five boys thirteen years of age who paid for the privilege of hunting in the county. These boys were Lawrence Kissinger of Maryville, Emmett Tannehill of Conception Junction, Lawrence Stockton of Guilford, Theodore Breedlove of Maryville and Emmett Meek of Elmo.

The men and boys weren't the only ones to buy hunting licenses however. Miss Norma Randall of Maryville and Mrs. William Linebaugh of Clearmont also planked down their dollar for the little white piece of paper that wards off the game warden and the officers of the law.

FIRES NUMBER 38 DURING YEAR 1922

DEPARTMENT EXTINGUISHES TWENTY WITH CHEMICALS

LOSS WAS $18,485.81

Largest Fire Was at John Shonley Home When Damage Was $4,000

The Maryville fire department made thirty-eight runs to fires in the year 1922. This is an average of three and one-sixth fires a month and Fire Chief Burt Rowley says that this is about the usual average for a town the size of Maryville.

The total estimated damage caused by these fires was $18,485.81, the eighty-one cents being for cigars and matches which were burnt up. The largest fire of the year was at the Shonley home which was completely destroyed at an estimated loss of $4,000. Two fires, one at Phipps garage, which was completely razed; and the other at the Shoemaker-Bovard storage barn, are estimated to have cost a loss of from $2,500 to $3,000.

Twenty of the fires which occured during the year were extinguished by the use of chemicals, according to Mr. Rowley's annual report. A few of the others were either false alarms or were put out before the fire department arrived on the scene.

Tomorrow or the next day the new fire truck will be ready for use. Three men from Kansas City are now working on it and it is believed that they will complete their job sometime tomorrow.

The new truck will be capable of as much as forty miles per hour in speed and in addition will have much more pulling power than the old one. It will be equipped with one of the largest searchlights made, one that can be thrown in any direction. This is a great improvement over the small hand light with which the old truck was equipped.

In case of a fire occuring before the new truck is ready the Dodge truck, which the department has purchased, has been impressed into service and a run could be made any time with it.

Last year there were forty-one fires in Maryville. In comparison, the fires this year were less in number but they were more costly. The total estimated loss of the fires last year was $14,875, which is somewhat less than this year.

Furthermore the most costly fire of the two years was in 1921. It was at the South Side Hardware store and the loss was estimated at around $8,000.

For the benefit of some who may not know, there are eighty-one fire plugs in Maryville and Mr. Rowley and his driver, Claude Stults, know the exact location of each of these.

In speaking of the fire department Mr. Rowley said, "The thing that I am most proud of is my driver. He is always dependable and no matter where the fire is he takes the truck right to the door. All I have to do is to tell him the street number. He does the rest."

DO MARYVILLE PEOPLE WANT FATTY ARBUCKLE

This Question Is Before Newspaper Readers In a Number of Cities In U. S.

Do the theatre going people of Maryville want to see "Fatty" Arbuckle in the theatres of Maryville again? This is the same question that has been propounded to the newspaper readers in a number of the larger cities of the United States and in countless numbers of the smaller towns.

Now that Rosco Arbuckle has received his "Christmas pardon" from Will Hays he has signed a contract and is now working on a series of pictures which will be released within the next month or so.

Will Hays he has

Of course there are two sides to the question. The first, Arbuckles side, that he was found innocent of charges brought against him; and the second, the side taken by a number of people, that although proved innocent, he is in a means guilty nevertheless.

What is the Maryville attitude?

DeBernardi and Rody, Hilliards forwards, were both going strong. Rody was a flash and De played his usual whale of a game.

A number of Maryville basketball fans went to St. Joseph for the game.

Lemp had business connections in Missouri, Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma, and was very widely known. He was head of serveral ice and coal companies and a large stockholder in the Kinlock Telephone Company of this city.

S. J. Schrader bought forty acres from George Cole Saturday from the farm originally owned by Jack Conlin. This gives Mr. Schrader a large farm in a square. WERE NOT SO MANY ARRESTS THIS YEAR

COUNTY AND CITY REPORTS SHOW

"EPH" SHOT 300 DOGS

Fewer Sent to Penitentiary But More Go to Reformatory at Boonville.

The number of arrests in Nodaway County and in the city of Maryville in the year 1922 was less than in the year previous. According to Sheriff Steve Roach and confirmed by the report of the county jail there were fifty-seven individuals who were at some time confined in that institution during the year. Of course a great number of these persons were in the jail for just a short time, perhaps just a few hours while giving bond or awaiting trial, but just the same they were behind the bars and can be counted.

In 1921 there were seventy-four who visited at Sheriff Roach's little mansion.

The year showed a lesser number of miscreants sent to the state penal institutions also. In 1921 seven persons were sent to the penitentiary and two were transported to Boonville. This year only six were sent to the penitentiary but five boys were given free transportation to the reformatory.

In the county report the number of arrests made when bond is given was not taken but there were from 175 to 200 who were in this number.

The city report shows that there were 103 arrests made since January 1, 1922. This number is about one-third less than in 1921, when in the neighborhood of 150 arrests were made.

Chief of Police E. E. Tilton said today that more than 300 dogs have gone to the happy hunting ground as a result of his accuracy with a shotgun. Every now and then the chief has a set-to with one of the canine species and he claims to hold a record of never having missed a dog. Of course this is unconfirmed.

DETECTIVES BARE PLANS TO RESCUE DROVER BANK ROBBERS

So Routing of Caverty and Williams Changed—Underworld Raised $20,000 to Aid Rescue?

Kansas City, Dec. 29.—What police claim to have been a well laid plot to rescue Jim Caverty and Frank Williams, alleged bandits for alleged part in the $97,000 robbery of the Drovers National Bank messenger some time ago, has been frustrated, officers say by changing the time in the arrival of the two suspected bandits.

The two men are being brought from New Orleans, where they were arrested several days ago. Following the discovery of rescue plans, by detectives, the routing was changed so to go via St. Louis and be brought into Kansas City secretly and lodged in the jail. This change in plans was made to forestall any attempts for rescue. Detectives learned that the men of the underworld had raised $20,000 to be paid gunmen to rescue the pair when they arrived.

BOARH'S PROPOSAL IS KILLED TODAY

NO VOTE ON PROPOSED CONFERENCE MEASURE

2 IRRECONCIABLES RAP IT

Moses and Johnson Voice Displeasure—Harding and Hughes Discussing The Delicate Negotiations

Washington, D. C., Dec. 29—In the face of the statement from administration senators that President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes were now engaged in in formal discussions and delicate negotiations on the calling of an economic and disarmament conference, the Borah amendment to the naval bill, providing the calling of such a conference, was killed this afternoon without ever coming to a vote.

Washington, Dec. 29—With caustic denial and stinging irony, two former "Irreconciable," associates of Senator Borah in his fight in the League of Nations' battle, Senators Moses of New Hampshire and Johnson of California, this afternoon poured out their viles of displeasure upon Borah's proposed economic and disarmament conference.

"I am against it," declared Johnson, "Because it makes less safety from the affairs in Europe and would make us after a hundred and fifty years, a part of the European system."

"Any attempt on our part to sit in the European game," said Moses, "would mean that we have to act as umpire with England and Belgium on one side and France and Italy on the other in the reparation muddle." In the international "game" he said it was clearly demonstrated the uncomfortable position that the umpire would occupy.

"I have no desire to see 'Uncle Sam' beaned with a pop bottle from the bleachers in the battle," added Moses. He further declared that the Versailles treaty should be torn up or to "eliminate the greed that marked every paragraph of the instrument. "Had we thrust our hands into the European problems at the outset through the ratification it might have been that the power of our influence would have made the instrument operative."

"CAIN AND ABEL" PICTURE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Will Be Shown Sunday Night—Sunday Services Will be Appropriate to the Closing of the Year.

The second motion picture entitled "Cain and Abel," of the Old Testament series, will be shown at the First Christian church next Sunday night. The first picture, Creation, was shown two weeks ago and was a beautiful and graphic description of that great event. The picture for Sunday night is described as a beautiful and forceful drama of a restless spirit falling into jealousy and then into the elemental passion of violence resulting in the slaying of Abel at the hands of his brother, Cain.

The evening services at the Christian church will be evangelistic in character through the winter according to the pastor, Rev. R. E. Snodgrass.

These motion pictures are shown every two weeks and add much to the interest of the services.

The local church is planning for big services Sunday with services appropriate to the closing of the year. The pastor will address the Men's class on the subject, "Hugh Latimer's Text."

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilmes returned to Creston, Ia., today after spending the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Zech, and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Zech, living southeast of Maryville.

K. K. K. DESTROYS ALL ITS EVIDENCE

LOUISIANA MEMBERS FEARFUL OF ARREST.

RECORDS ARE BURNED

Robes and Everything Go Up in Smoke—Knights Fear Complicity in Murder Charge.

Bastrop, La., Dec. 29.—Disintegration of the local branch of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, because of the fear of wholesale arrests and prosecution of its members in murder case of Watt Daniels and Thomas Richards last August, is the gist of reports running through all of Morehouse Parish. These reports say that the knights have disrobed at the order of exalted cyclops, J. K. Skipworth, and the members have agreed to lock behind their own lips the identity of every member.

Persons who once spoke freely about "100 per cent Americanism," are now silent and attempt to command a bland expression when asked concerning the persons who took the law in their own hands. These persons who were much too liberal in their warnings "to leave this community at once," one of the prominent acts of the Klan, are now very silent. It was stated that the members, upon command from Skipworth, met at Spyker in a solemn meeting Sunday night. Some thirty or forty men, in the stillness of the Louisiana darkness, set fire to robes and other evidence of connection with the Klan. Letters, written records and all went up in smoke to clear them of any possible entanglements the present probe, which promises to be one of the most sensational ever known, might bring upon them.

Spyker is the home of T. J. Burnett, the first man to be arrested on a charge of the murder of last summer and it is a veritable hotbed of Klan activities. Burnett denied that he was a member of the Klan. Klan members are speculating whether or not mere membership in the Klan will give cause for indictments as accomplices in the murder.

In the meantime, Burnett shows very little concern over his predicament.

Bastrop, La., Dec. 29—Sleeping Bastrop was aroused early this morning by a dozen or more shots from a trooper at the jail where T. J. Burnett is held on the charge of the murder of Watt Daniels and Charles Richards last August.

Although the fusillade of bullets started a furor in the town, the guard merely reported that he fired when a man, presumably a tramp, refused to halt. A search revealed no trail of the man. All of the trooper's shots went wild.

GREECE MAY RESUME WARFARE AGAINST TURKS IN THRACE

Greek Cabinet Called For Additional Reservists and Chief of Staff Is Enroute to Thrace

London, Dec. 29—Elutherios Venuzelos, head of the Greek delegation, has warned his government to be ready to resume war against Turkey, an Athens dispatch to a London paper stated today.

Greece is putting an army in Thrace and he urged them to send reenforcements as rapidly as possible. The Greek cabinet at Athens has called for additional classes of reservists. Chief of the Greek staff, Pangalos and three deputies have departed for Saloniki.

The new war scare in the near East has arisen from the deadlock at the Lausanne peace conference. Neither the Turks or the Allies will give ground and as a result the negotiations are on the verge of absolute collapse and have been for the past forty-eight hours. Great Britain now has a large fleet gathered between the Black and Agean Seas. All diplomatic relations between Greece and Great Britain have been broken off, but they would make common cause against the Turks in event of hostilities.

Verne Pickens, athletic director of the Excelsior Springs High School, arrived in Maryville last night to spend the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pickens.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY

HOW ONE MAN WON.

Voluminous books are written telling young men how they can succeed in business. But the biographies of successful business men tell just as much. The fellow who studies how a man like John Wanamaker, whose death has just caused deep regret, attained his position in the business world, will get a pretty good idea as to what are the foundations of success.

Mr. Wanamaker based his amazing results as a retail merchant principally on two ideas: First, fair treatment for the public; second, liberal advertising. The keynote of his whole career is found in the story of what he did with the receipts of his first business day as a clothing dealer. Out of the $24.67 he had taken in that day, he set aside 67 cents to make change with and spent the $24 in advertising. Thereby he manifested the principles of initiative through which any man who sells good goods can make a success of business.

SETTLING EUROPE.

Senator Borah of Idaho again showed his capacity for doing the unexpected when he startled the Senate with a resolution calling for an international conference on reparations and disarmament. As a leading opponent of the League of Nations, it can not be said that he is disposed to be over venturesome in getting mixed up with European affairs.

No matter how much our people desire to keep their hands out of Europe's boiling stew, it is evident that the unsettled conditions across the water are highly injurious to our own people. Our farmers and manufacturers can't sell their products while Europe is disturbed by antagonisms and hatreds, preparations for more war, maintenance of large armies, and depreciated currencies.

The pertinacious refusal of the French and Italian governments to ratify the naval limitation treaty shows what a ticklish thing it is to deal with these powers, with their antagonisms and fears. France will say that she will let up on the payments demanded from Germany, if America will remit some or all of her debt to us. France will also say that she will reduce her army if other powers will protect her in case of a German invasion.

These are difficult problems to handle. But they are not insoluble. It would be a grand and glorious sight if Senator Borah and Premier Poincare of France could sit down together and talk things over. Each might learn something from the other. They would probably be nearer together when they got through. Whether the time is ripe for Mr. Borah's conference is another question, but the United States will have to help shape some plan by which Europe can pull itself out of its hole, and the quality of standpatism that has succeeded so far in holding back international progress will not get anywhere until, like Senator Borah, it begins to think forwardly instead of backwardly.

To Play for Elks Dance and One Tonight—Drummer Went to Maysville

The members of the Quadrangle orchestra, which played at the Elks Dinner Dance last night and will play at the W. O. W. hall tonight, drove to Maryville from Jefferson City in an automobile.

Clarence Yarbough, the drummer of the orchestra, thinking that the town was Maysville, went there and consequently was not in Maryville last night. He arrived, however, this morning and will sit with the orchestra tonight.

Our idea of a foolish man is one who invites a friend to go home to supper with him the day his wife is entertaining her sewing circle.

The only way you can prevent two sisters wearing each other's clothes is to have one sister weigh 98 pounds and the other 250 pounds.

The father of yesterday who never used a telephone lives anew in the son who never listened in on a radio.

Our stenographer says the reason she does not take to Radio boots is because they make holes in her stockings, which we suppose is as good a reason as any.

One of our professional friends is now convinced that few people believe in signs. He had the word "Private" lettered on his private office door in gilt letters and says it seems to be an invitation to everyone to walk in.

In the old days the jokesmiths used to get a lot of laughs in cold weather by referring to how busy the plumbers were fixing the bursted pipes. Now they write about the garage repair man who gets a job fixing the fellows car who forgot to put alcohol in the radiator. How times have changed.

We certainly are not going to have any excuse for not keeping track of the days next year. Every time we turn around some one presents us with a calender.

"Autos Within Reach of All" we read in a headline the other day. From our experience in crossing Maryville streets we all are in reach of the autos.

How do you suppose the country would have been developed in the early days if the pioneers belonged to a union and worked by the clock.

207 More Victims Succumb to Wiles of Daniel X. Cupid

Two hundred and seven of the pride of the United States smilingly consigned themselves to a lifelong habitation in the depths of Pergatory during the year 1922. Two hundred and seven flowers of the universe took up the imperial scepter of domestic authority during these twelve months. Two hundred and seven couples were joined in wedlock in that 365 days. Hold her Newt, she's rearin'.

Dan R. Baker, recorder of deeds, shook a wicked pen 207 times while 414 happy, unsuspecting individuals fidgeted and squirmed for one-another's embrace.

Twenty-nine of the Romeos who wished to become Benedicts chose the J. P. route and Judge W. L. Johnson lead the field with twenty-nine ceremonies performed. The Rev. B. F. Cline ran a close second however, tying 24 matrimonial knots.

The rest of the ministers of the town and the probate judge ran along in the rear, two trailing until the finish. The Rev. Mr. Snodgrass won the bronze medal for third place with 19 victims.

Judge Robertson nosed out Prosecutor-elect O. L. Curl by mere chest expansion, tallying a total of 17 headlocks (beg pardon, wedlocks) to 16 for the erstwhile rabbi.

Mr. Allison was only at home twelve times when the guilty parties arrived so his total was not so large as that of some of his competitors.

The Rev. Father Neiman did his stuff five times and the Rev. T. J. Puckett officiated at two matches.

Daniel Cupid was not so active this year as he was last year and consequently he got scooped. The grand tatol of these who got "sucked under" in the year 1921 was 247, which is 40 more than this year.
